

Herbalife at home business

Would you like to earn some spare money working from home? Are you interested in helping people improve their lives, through sharing good nutrition and an amazing business opportunity? Are you serious, teachable and willing to work? Do you want to work in a growing business that looks after its distributors and knows how to have fun?

If so, the Herbalife® at home business opportunity could be what you're looking for&hellip;

Design a business that works around your life

Do you want a business you can work from home, in the time you have available? You may need to work around family, or other jobs, or you may be retired and want some extra income to improve your quality of life.

Whatever your circumstances, you can work the Herbalife® at home business either part-time or full-time, creating a business around your life. Part-time earnings average from £500-1500 per month Full time earnings range from £1000 - £3000 per month

The best in personal development

If you want a rewarding business where you can learn from the best of the best, why not visit one of our training events? Herbalife® has created more millionaires than any other network marketing company and as distributors; we are trained by those millionaires &ndash; giving us access to the best personal and business development whilst we design the life we would like to live.

Housework That Pays

Mothers who work from home are raking in a total of £4 billion a year, according to new research, in a trend being labelled 'the rise of the Mumpreneur'. Combining a working from home career with bringing up a family is the ultimate flexibility for a lot of parents. According to a recent survey by netmums.com over two thirds of mothers say being self employed is the ideal solution for combining home and work life.

Top tips for parents wanting to work from home are:

- Get out often &ndash; you can get cabin fever working from home
  - Create your own office space
  - Manage your time
  - Have good childcare in place, so you can work effectively
- Free Information Pack For a free information pack about the Herbalife® at home business opportunity, call Wishing Wellness on 01229 580220 or email info@wishingwellness.co.uk